EARLY MORNING

Marriage Of Mr. I. B. Richardson
And Miss Lottie Compton—
Two Other Weddings.

A pretty but quiet church wedding was that of Mr. I. B. Richardson to Miss Lottie Compton at Garfield Monday morning. The ceremony was performed at the Baptist church by Rev. E. B. English at 7 o'clock. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Richardson left for this city. At 10:30 o'clock they took the Express to the limited train for St. Louis for a trip to the fair. They will return, on the way of Chicago and Cincinnati, to Garfield, where they will reside.

The bride and groom are well known young people and of prominent families in their section of the county. The groom is engaged in the mercantile business at Garfield with his father, Mr. A. A. Richardson, while the bride is the daughter of M. P. Compton, a prosperous farmer of that section.

PAYNE-MOORMAN

The wedding of Mr. P. R. Payne and Miss Irene Moorman is announced to take place in the Baptist church at Hartensburg on Tuesday, October 25, at 11 o'clock in the morning. The many friends of the contracting parties are cordially invited to witness the ceremony. Miss Moorman and Mr. Payne, two of the county's most prominent families.

MARRIED SUNDAY.

Mr. Lonnie Tacl and Miss Rena Duncan, well-known young people of Forrest, the neighborhood, were married Sunday. The groom is a son of W. B. Tacl, while the bride is a daughter of Mrs. Mira Duncan.

has increased wonderfully. And now see to have a first-class saw-mill and barrel factory, to be run by that veteran saw-mill man, R. M. Smith, who will remove his entire plant to that town and run it to its full capacity. This will be quite an addition to the business interests of Stephenport.

Rod Foote tells us that he has a flock of 75 yellow bronze turkeys, and that he has to keep them guarded day and night to keep them from stealing them. He started out with 135 and they disappeared so fast that he put a man in the field with them.

Bellview Farm is the name of John Frakes place, near Irvinings. Mr. Frakes is making a handsome place of it, doing lots of hard work, which shows for itself. Mighty few better farmers in this country than John Frakes.

Bob McGrothian is building a new addition to his home in Irvinings. It is a beautiful place, well kept and nicely located.

Charlie Claycomb has just built a new home in his place near Webster. It shows up nicely from the railroad.

Uncle Billy Withers, one of the old landmarks of Hartensburg, will be seventy-six years old next month. He came to this country in 1854 and has been a very active, hard working man in his life. In his palmy days no man in the country could beat him raising corn and tobacco. He pitched his crop early, was the first man to plant corn and to set tobacco, and he always had good crops of both. A splendid good citizen, honest and upright, kindhearted and hospitable, and at his home the latchespring is always on the outside to his friends. He is not as strong and active as he used to be, but he is still healthy and hearty for a man of his years.

He comes to court, enjoys the proceedings and meets his friends and loves to talk about the old times. He has been a life long Democrat, casting his vote for Buchanan for President in 1856 his name has been on our list for twenty-seven years, and he renewed his subscription last week for the twenty-eighth year. With all our fanatics and short comings he has stood by us like the good man that he is.

May he live to round out his century, and it's more than probable that he will, as his uncle lived to be nearly a hundred.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend thanks to the many friends and neighbors who have assisted us in the illness of our wife and mother.

He is worth several thousand dollars and could live comfortably for the rest of his life, as he is advanced in years, but prefers to remain at his trade of carpenter.

Mr. Brown lived here last year on a shantyboat until December, when he went to Cairo. An account of his engineering work over a scalding vat. He put one of his hands into the water and placed it on the crate in order to regain his balance. The member was badly scalded but he succeeded in seeing his body ironed.

EXCELLENT WORK.

Dr. R. P. Keene, representing Taylor, Keene & Taylor, the Owenton dentists, returned Saturday to Owenton and opened a office here. Dr. Keene did some excellent dental work while in the city. Dr. Lackey Is Sued.

There have been a few developments in the Hopkinsville asylum affair since the account of the wholesale indictments returned by the grand jury was printed on another page.

Dr. Lackey, in a public statement made Friday, charged Superintendent Milton Board with keeping a record of patients and drawing care from the State Auditor, two patients who are not there. Dr. Lackey, when asked as to the charges brought against him by Dr. Board, denied every charge and said he would bring a suit for damages against the doctor.

HELP OF BANKS

Will Be Extended To Tobacco Growers Who Are Striving For Better Prices.

Louisville, Oct. 15.—The movement of the dark tobacco growers to hold their tobacco for better prices, and to combine for the purpose of forcing the market upward, has received an impetus which will go very far toward bringing about a realization of this hope. A meeting of the bankers of the section embraced in the Clarksville district has been held, at which it was agreed to advance money to the farmers on tobacco stored in warehouses at current rates of interest.

A committee of the farmers has accepted the offer of the bankers, and the plan that has been so laboriously wrought out will prove a success, after all. For some time the farmers have been rather hopeless on account of various things, one of which was the apparent closer combination of the dealers to prevent the planter from making their combination successful.

The tobacco will be priced and warehoused as it can be done with safety and the growers will then be in a position to await the coming of the tobacco men to them. The committee will see that there is no rash of sales, and no more tobacco will be put on the market than is demanded by the traders.

10 TO 3 ON ROOSEVELT.

From New York Sun Oct. 15.

The odds in Wall Street changed to 10 to 3 on Roosevelt yesterday. Several large sums were put up at odds of 10 to 3. Bunnell & Buchanan bet $25,000 to $7,500 on Roosevelt. Of this $23,000 was bet with Williamson & Squire.

Bunnell & Buchanan also placed $600 to $2,000 on Parker with Sam Wood. They made one small bet of $10 to $100 on Higgins. Last night they were offering $10,000 to $1,000 on Roosevelt and $350 to $1,000 on Parker.

James Bresen bet $1,000 to $300 on Roosevelt. Another bet of $325 to $1,000 on Parker with Foster & Lounsbury. T. A. McIntyre & Co. bet $1,000 to $300 on Roosevelt.

Twenty-six Years Ago in Cloverport

From The Breckinridge News of October 23, 1878.

A most disastrous fire visited our town on the morning of the 29th last. The wagon factory and blacksmith shop of Mr. J. L. Miller, the shingle, spoke and stave factory and cooper shop of Archie, Graham & Co., the wagon workshop of Woods & Meyers, and the coopering establishment of J. W. Steele were all destroyed, entailing a loss upon the parties respectively, viz: J. L. Miller, $1,700, Archie, Graham & Co., $4,000; Woods & Meyers $700 and J. W. Steele $300. None of the property was insured.

A big white frost Saturday night. Give us some public wells and citizens to put out fire.

The Republicans carry Ohio by a majority of a little over 3,000.

A young man in Hardinsburg is on the verge of crying because a girl in Cloverport has gone and got married.

The citizens of Cloverport did valiant service Sunday morning at the fire. They disputed every inch of the flames by banding water, blankets, etc.

Dr. Luke P. Blackburn is becoming stronger every day for the race for Governor. The man who beats him will grace the gubernatorial chair.

There have been 3,519 deaths of yellow fever in New Orleans, and 11,729 cases to Oct. 15. Vickeburg, Memphis and Grenada have suffered and are still suffering heavy death rates.

HARDINSBURG.

There will be a strong pull for local option here at the November election.

SAY MARRIAGE LASTS UNTIL DEATH PARTS.

Chicago Oct. 12.—After prolonged discussions lasting nearly a week, the report of the Committee on Marriage and Divorce was presented at the last moment at the closing sessions of the Sixty-fifth Rock River Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at the Evanston avenue church last night.

The report recommends a long ship—long enough to test the quality of love. The importance of the permanence of the marriage tie was emphasized as having direct bearing on human development. The committee was unanimous in maintaining a marriage was contracted "until death do part." The bond was declared to be indissoluble and never to be entered into irreversibly or irrevocably.

The proper conception of matrimony was declared to be the basis of a pure and anticipatory life, as well as the best defense from evil. The conference voted to join with other churches in an attempt to secure "the enactment of uniform divorce laws in every state.

MR. ROOSEVELT ON SOUTHERN COURAGE

(New York Sun.)

To the editor of the Sun—Sir: If my old time friend and fellow Mississippian, Jon S. Williams, is quoted correctly, he said in effect in his recent speech at Louisville, Ky., that Mr. Roosevelt had cast slurs on Southern courage. I have not seen any such; but if Mr. Williams or any of your readers will furnish Mr. Roosevelt's "Life of Thomas H. Benton," it will be found therein that he gives the highest praise to the Southern noble R. E. Lee, once my beloved commander, as a Confederate soldier, and gives the very highest testimonial to the courage of the Confederate Army.

MCDANIELS.

Wear your old overcoat; times are hard to buy a new one.

Tobacco is very nearly all out in the part of the country—about half crop.

Wheat was rather short here and corn will be very scarce by spring.

Bacon is "unsatisfactory." Our sides rather like dry hides for the want of a little of that "same extract. It has not been so scarce for years. Many persons have been without for some time.

Cannon, Rhodes & Mitchell are winding up their tobacco pricing and are shipping it to New York. They say it beats the Louisville market one-third.

Financial matters, says the correspondent, are exceedingly dull and the outlook is bad with short crops the prospect is that a hard year is before us.

Bowman & Hambleton were in their fourth year of the "Original Cash System" and the result of this system had doubled their sales.

J. W. Haynes & Co. were running the marble shop.

J. F. Sulzer & Bro. were advertising great bargains for the people.

G. H. Kurtz was advertising short horned cattle and had his herd at the Hardinsburg fair.

Sawyer Wallace & Co., of New York, were making liberal advances on consignments of tobacco through their agents, F. V. and H. V. Duncans.

Elton was quoted on the Louisville market at $3.25 to $4.50 per bushel, wheat $3 cents, and corn 44 cents per bushel. Beef cattle, common, $1.30 and $2. choice butcher stock $3 and $3.50, Hogs $2.50 to $3.40.

Scott Allen was married to Miss Mattie Preston and W. W. Lewis to Miss Little Millett, of Owensboro.

Oelze & Reidel were proprietors of the Star Roller Mills, F. L. Roth proprietor of the Cloverport Hotel and Miller & Houston, the livery stable.

Dr. J. H. W. Frank comes back at the editor on caucuses and conventions and makes it lively for him.

Again, Mr. Roosevelt has placed as foreman of the Philippine officials, the Hon. Luke Wright of Memphis, Tenn., who from the age of 14 to the end of the war between the States, was absolutely the most gallant young soldier in the Army of Tennessee.

I have seen him in battle at Murfreesboro and elsewhere, and I stand without fear of successful contradiction, that Luke Wright, even as a mere boy, was "the bravest of the brave."

Surely no higher honor has ever been given than this of Mr. Roosevelt of his opinion of Southern courage and character, and Luke Wright is not even Reynolds and his wife, the daughter of Admiral Raphael Semmes, than whom no Confederate sailor was ever braver or more beloved by his comrades.

I am grieved to find John Sharp Williams, the son of a son and true a Confederate soldier as ever fought and died for his cause, did say this of Mr. Roosevelt.

HERE IS A PRESCRIP- TION FOR DIVORCES.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 13.—Here is a prescription guaranteed to cure divorce! It is presented by one who knows it by Mrs. Aspin Smith, who only Tuesday was divorced from her husband, the prominent West Side clercman and president of the Marvin Smith company.

This cure is prescribed solely for husbands. The formula follows:

Never neglect a parting kiss when starting for business. This means you and not your wife.

Take your wife to the theater at least once a week.

When you buy theater tickets telephone her and give your wife ample time to dress.

Tell your wife at least once a day that you love her. Never compel her to force this confession from you. Say "I love you" of your own free will.

That's all there is to it; follow this formula and all will be happiness.

LEAVES DECAYED.

Horace Scott writes to have his paper changed from Decatur to Centralia, Ill. He says he is still traveling for his Standard Oil Co. and is making his headquarters at the latter place.

GREAT INCREASE

In Crime In Louisville Will Lead To Greatest Revival In History Of City.

The startling increase in crime in Louisville during the past year is a topic of conversation and comment throughout the State, and even in the metropolis. The best citizens of that city realize that something must be done at once to check the lawlessness that exists there and plans for one of the greatest religious revivals the city has ever known will be perfected at a meeting of the Louisville Ministerial Association on November 7.

The Rev. William Wistar Hamilton, the brilliant young Kentucky preacher, in a recent sermon at the McMullan Memorial Church to Sodom, said, in part:

"Unchecked saloons, Sabbath desecration, dance halls, gambling rooms, brothels, unavenged murders and open defiance of the law have been thrown before the eyes of the people until they are becoming aroused."

"Our citizens are numbered, some political party or secret order hushes up the investigation, and in forty-eight hours we forget the name of the victim."

"Our people are beginning to realize the abounding wickedness. They are seeing the awful and certain retribution upon ungodly men, against wicked rule and the divine curse."

"Now to him that buildeth a town with blood and establish a city by iniquity."

"He shall himself be the victim of his own wicked rule, and by making it unsafe for others lose his own life by lawlessness."

With Combinations Of Bryan's 1900 Vote And Doubtful States Claim They'll Win.

The following review of the political situation is sent out from Democratic headquarters at Louisville. It says—

There are 476 electoral votes and 239 are necessary to a choice. It seems certain that Parker and Davis will carry all the states that went for Bryan in 1900 and we start with that premise.

Here is one combination that is possible, if not probable:—

Bryan's vote in 1900.....155
New York.....36
Maryland.....9
California.....8
Nebraska.....8
New Jersey.....10
Connecticut.....6
Delaware.....3

Total.....239

Here is another that will bring victory and it is not as difficult as it may appear:—

Bryan's vote in 1900.....155
New York.....36
Maryland.....9
California.....8
Nebraska.....8
New Jersey.....10
Indiana.....15

Total.....241

The next compilation includes a number of Western States that went for Bryan in 1896 and may be won to the support of Parker and Davis:—

Bryan's vote in 1900.....155
New York.....36
Maryland.....9
Washington.....4
South Dakota.....4
Washington.....4
Indiana.....15

Total.....241

The concluding table proves that the Democratic ticket has a royal chance to win if only three of the doubtful States in the West follow the example of New Jersey and rally to the Democratic standard.

BREAKS OWN RECORD.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 14.—Lion Dillon, world's champion trotting mare, has broken all work-out records for trotting horses by circling the course in 2:01. Millard Saunders, her trainer, says the mare "has passed by a master." Fractional time: First quarter, 30½; half, 1:00; three quarters, 1:29½; mile 2:01½. The former work-out record, 2:02, was held by Lion Dillon, established at Cleveland September 29 of this year. No wind shields were used.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine whether it was wanted for a child or an adult and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and catarrh it is. For sale by Short & Hayes.

THE "YOUNG" OLD MAN.

Fairmont, W. Va., Oct. 12.—The success of Mr. Davis' campaign through Maryland and West Virginia has been more intense and satisfactory in this campaign than the first. It has also added to the reputation of Mr. Davis, as a "young" old man. He repeated his record of yesterday with a dozen speeches and added one more for good measure.

Can You Eat?

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Christians, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by me of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my normal strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure demands what you eat and cures. Sold by All Druggists.

THE SQUIRREL LAW.

The new squirrel law forbidding the killing of squirrels from September 15th to November 15th is giving universal dissatisfaction. Complaints are coming in from every quarter of the country, and the people who are wholly opposed to it. The sportsmen en masse are fond in their denunciation of the law, and the farmer who suffers from the depredations of the squirrels upon their corn crops strongly and emphatically denounce the measure.—Hartford Herald.

REVIEW AND OUTLOOK.

Speaking with broad generalizations, there are the following developments on the bull side of the business situation:

The forced liquidation of 1903 is now completed.

The speculative strain on the credit resources of the country is removed.

The confidence and courage of the business community are restored.

The political uncertainties are nearly at an end, with the election of President Roosevelt practically assured.

Crops of money value probably $200,000,000 in excess of last year have been raised.

The production of gold the world over continues on an unequal scale, with a total of $350,000,000 probable.

The labor situation, while still one of antagonism between organized capital and labor, is in a much less acute state, and less a menace to business interests, resembling an armed truce between nations.

But there is one feature of the outlook which continues distinctly unfavorable. Prices of commodities keep on a high level. While Dun's index number for Oct. 1 is 98,394 against 103,615 on March 1, this reduction is by no means radical enough, and moreover prices now manifest a rising tendency, largely owing to the higher cost of meats and garden products. Dun's index number advanced from 97,842 on Sept. 1 to 98,394 on Oct. 1 and is one full point higher than it was a year ago.

This is not as it should be. Nevertheless, it is easily accounted for. In part it is attributable to the reduced value of gold, owing to its decreased cost and larger production. But there are other causes. There can be no doubt that the consumptive demand is increasing somewhat more rapidly than the supplies. This is a consequence of prosperity, which has cultivated more expensive habits of living, converted luxuries into necessities, and by concentrating the population in the big cities has produced higher rents. - Wall Street Journal.

FOOL TALK TO THE PEOPLE.

In a speech in Alabama, Congress-man Heflin made a bitter attack on Booker T. Washington, and remarked that if somebody had thrown a bomb under the table when the educator was seated with President Roosevelt no harm would have been done the country.

What a fool remark!

Mr. Heflin should know this:

Not all the men in the country have sufficient reasoning power. Many of them are foreigners, who are not use to liberty, and know only the savage law of force. Some lack even average intelligence. What do such men think when they hear a speaker, a man of brains and position and power, an office holder, a person presumably of so much importance and wisdom that his words must have weight, advocate VIOLENCE—the use of deadly explosive to rid the world of one who has done the world no wrong, but has labored unceasingly to elevate his race?

If a Congressman can safely advocate assassination, even in the heat of anger, when words flow fast from heedless lips, is it fair to put the blame on the thick-skulled one who follows his lead and commits a crime?

There is no place in America for assassins. There is no place in the hearts of loyal people—North or South—for men who advocate bullet or bomb to solve the problems that confront this country.

Now have we reached such a plane of wisdom that it is safe to even suggest how wrongs may be committed.

There are unwise things done in every campaign. There are fools on the stump, as well as in the audiences. None of them show less evidences of intelligence than this man of bitter thoughts and words, who advocates WRONG because of his hatred for a race.—Cincinnati Post.

DAVE HENRY "speaks softly and carries a big stick" and is keeping the peace of Irvington very nicely, too.

THAT man is unfortunate and ill advised who devotes more time to fighting supposed opposition than he does to the accomplishment of that is necessary to make him a good citizen.—Clarion.

EVERYBODY in Denver earned an ax for three days last week. The occasion was the three days' festivities of the Woodmen of the World. They were there seven thousand strong and it was the most jubilant of all jubilees.

MILLIONS of feet of timber are now being shipped from Alabama for the construction of the Panama canal. Her coal, iron, cement and other articles are also being drawn on for its construction. Millions of dollars will be poured into the south from this great enterprise.

THE talents of gold, silver and brass used in the building of Solomon's temple amounted, according to the best estimates, to about $32,000,000,000. The jewels used are estimated at about the same enormous figure. The vessels of gold are worth about $2,500,000,000 and the vessels of silver $2,000,000,000. The purple vestments of the singers cost nearly $10,000,000, the trumpets about $1,000,000 and other musical instruments $200,000. There were 10,000 men engaged at Lebanon hewing timber; there were 70,000 bearers of burdens, 20,000 hewers of stone and 3,300 overseers. The cost of the temple with its entire equipment is estimated at $77,500,000,000.

As they say on the "Pike," "Hurry, hurry, hurry," if you want to get into our presidential contest. There is $10,000 in it to the man or woman who guesses the right number. Only three more weeks now to get in.

Best hogs on the Louisville market this week are bringing $5.20 and $5.25; choice to prime cattle $4.40 to $4.75; best sheep $2.75 to $3.25; best lambs $5 to $5.25. There is practically little change compared to last week.

Don't forget that there is a very important question to be submitted to the voters in this county at the coming election. It is a proposition whether or not stock shall run at large in this county. Stock laws are good things in other counties where they have tried them and we don't see why it should not be good for Breckenridge county. Down in Hancock county they have the law and it is proving very satisfactory. Farmers who opposed the law bitterly at the start now say they would not be without it. It is the progress of civilization, the survival of the fittest. Cities and towns have laws against stock running at large and why not the country districts. It is a good law and ought to carry by a large majority.

A Missouri paper gives to its readers the following good advice, which will be found as applicable here as in other towns: If you want a larger and better business town, go to work to make it so. Don't stop to find fault with others. Induce them to join the ranks of the progressive ones. When they get busy doing good they will forget to grumble. A town will just what the people make it and not one whit more. All the kicking we can do won't add a single enterprise, but it might drive some away. Pave the streets, use more fresh paint. Houses will be built as they are needed, but quit knocking and kicking every enterprise in which business men engage. Remember the life of your town is in the keeping of your business men. "Knockers," as a general thing, don't labor themselves or give work to laborers. If we will aid each other and push straight ahead all will come that is due us.

THE Hopkinsville Asylum affair is bad enough. It matters not who is to blame. It is the outcome of politics, partisan politics of the worst sort. The man who is put at the head of a state institution like that, should leave his politics at home and know no man when it comes to the administration of its affairs. Dr. Board is a strong partisan. He believes to the victor belongs the spoils and he runs things that way. He did it here at his home and you couldn't expect anything better of him down at Hopkinsville. The man that didn't do his way he cut his head off politically, and did it quiet, too. If Dr. Luckey had dropped into his Board's way and recognized him as boss, which he was, there would have been no trouble. But Dr. Luckey, it seems, was somewhat of a boss himself and refused to recognize Boss Mitt, hence the trouble. It is very unfortunate for the state, for the great Democratic party of Kentucky and more unfortunate for the poor inmates. Can we never get above party?

THE supply of preachers in the East and Middle West is becoming serious, says the Denver News. All over the world the number of young men who are being educated for the ministry is growing smaller. Some startling figures are given. "In the eleven Baptist colleges east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio there were probably twenty-six men studying for the ministry who graduated in the last senior classes. Out of 1,200 students in Harvard, Yale, Columbia and Princeton, graduating this year, who have indicated their life work, only twenty-eight of all denominations are reported to enter the ministry. The News goes on to say that while the number of persons entering the ministry who are graduates is falling off, there is no dearth of ministers, because the profession is amply supplied by young men who take 'short cuts' into the pulpit. This method, it says, while receiving the endorsement of some, is deplored by the more thoughtful. The latter assert that the general intelligence and mental vigor of the age demands the fullest possible equipment on the part of those who enter the sacred calling. The big city churches are encountering serious difficulty in securing suitable men to fill their pulpits when they become vacant. The demands made upon a pastor of a large city church in this age are greater than ever before. The work of the church has broadened. The number of the churches has greatly increased, while the members are so absorbed in the affairs of this strenuous age as to leave little time or energy in which to do church work. So the pastor must be a man of action and possess a good deal of executive ability in order to conduct the affairs of his church successfully. And, at the same time, the demand upon him as a preacher has increased rather than diminished, especially in the scope of the subjects discussed. So the finding of a suitable minister for the vacant pulpit is a very difficult task. So we see from this that there is plenty of room at the top for the good preacher. For the man of intellectual and spiritual force, with ideas and energy to carry them out and make himself heard and felt.

How the Famous Surgeon Veipen Treated a Free Patient.

The famous surgeon Veipen was visited one day at his house during the consultation hour by a marquis renowned for his closeness. Veipen informed the marquis that an operation was to be performed on the eye which would amount to $1,000 francs. At this the marquis made a very fair and left. A fortnight later Dr. Veipen, while making his rounds in the Hospital de la Charite, had his attention attracted by a face that seemed familiar to him. In answer to his inquiry it was stated that the patient was a footman of a general in the French army in Germany. The surgeon found that he was resembled in every particular something unusual one for which the marquis had consulted him a fortnight previously. He refrained, however, from making any comments.

Thereupon, after the operation, with the patient's account to be discharged, Dr. Veipen called him aside and exclaimed: "Monsieur, I am extremely flattered and pleased to have been able to cure you. There is, however, a small formality with you which you will have to comply before I can sign your receipt that you will have to pay the $1,000 francs." The patient was a footman of a general in the French army in Germany. The surgeon found that he was resembled in every particular something unusual one for which the marquis had consulted him a fortnight previously.

He refrained, however, from making any comments.

Cobweb Pills.

Andrew Wilson, the well known naturalist and writer, in commenting on Culpepper's "Complete Method," published in 1653, observes that he enabled a man to "cure himself, being sick of a rheumatic disease, with a concoction of such things as grow in England, being most fit for English bodies." John Wesley practiced music." Wilson concluded: "His system was not strictly limited to vegetable simples. Wesley prescribed an exclusive diet for a fortnight for certain asthma and recommended bathed people to wash their vacant spots with a decoction of boxwood. For bleeding from the lungs or stomach the juice of nettle is ordered and from the juice of cowpeas.

PRESSED TO DEATH.

Capital Punishment That Obtained Under the Old English Law.

Under the old English law if a prisoner stood mute and failed to plead to the indictment he was compelled to determine whether his conduct came from insensibility or from a natural impediment. According to Blackstone, if the prisoner was found to be obstinately mute and the indictment was for high treason it was settled that his silence was equivalent to a confession and that judgment and execution should follow. The law ruled that he should have no sustenance, save only on the first day three morsels of the worst bread, and on the second day three drafts of standing water that should be nearest the prison door, and in this situation this should be alternately his daily diet till he died (or an accidentally the judgment ran) till he was hanged.

During the trials for witchcraft in New England a respectable citizen being so accused, knowing that by reason of the excitement of the times a plea of not guilty and trial would result in a conviction with confiscation of property, he would stand by his innocence, and when he was found guilty, instead of being hanged, he was given a placard to wear, which would declare him a "witch" and thereby preventing a conviction and enabling his family to retain his property. The order was carried out and the victim died.—Chicago News.

WISDOM OF ANIMALS.

The Art of Apes—A Dog Actor, Wise Dogs and Elephants.

Apuleius says that in the spring fetes of Isis, the forerunners of the Roman carnival, he saw a monkey with a straw hat and a Phrygian tunic.

But monkeys do not seem to have been popular in England, and of all animal performances were of course the dogs, and one showman had the ingenious idea of making a dog act a part in a comedy. The effects of a drug were tried on him, the plot turning on the suspicion that the drug was poisonous, while in fact, it was only a narcotic. The dog took a slice of bread dipped in the liquid, swallowed it and began to reel and stagger, till he finally fell on the ground.

At the right moment he began to move very slightly as if waking out of a deep sleep. Then he raised his head, looked around, jumped up and ran joyously in the proper person.

Then the dog, who had been growing wiser with age, contradicted by the habit of elephants, noticed even in ancient times, of making the young ones cross a ford first. The officer who superintended the embarkation of the elephants sent from India to Abyssinia for use in Lord Napiers campaign, never allowed the young ones to cross a ford first, but when they had all embarked and he was invited to follow them he firmly declined and had to be left on shore.

I myself have noticed the acquired caution of the older dogs of Constantinople, which I have seen in the cities of the empire, while the young ones were then, as I have been told, very ignorant. A Greek native told me that this was because Europeans were in the cruel habit of throwing poisoned bread to the street dogs; hence the old ones, having seen the bad effects on their companions, refused to eat it. In the same way, the dogs which were sold in Asia from a very Turkish beggar who shared his scanty fare with them.—Contemporary Review.

LEAVING THE PRESS.

One of the foremost lawyers in New York city left the point of his pen-cil whenever about to write with it. The other day it was indelible, and his tongue was a sight to behold. His friends were alarmed, thinking he had met with an accident. "My boy does not say," he did, "I did it when I was a boy, and my boy is much greater than I." And nearly every ounce of any consequence of my acquaintance does it and did it. Licking the point of the pen-cil is one of the choicest of human weaknesses.—New York Press.

BONE FOOD

Soft and crooked bones mean bad feeding. Call the disease rickets if you want to. The growing child must eat the right food for growth. Bones must have bone food, blood must have blood food and so on through the list.

Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment for soft bones in children. Little doses every day give the stiffness and shape that healthy bones should have.

Bow legs become straighter, loose joints grow stronger and firmness comes to the soft heads.

Wrong food caused the trouble. Right food will cure it. In thousands of cases Scott's Emulsion has proven to be the right food for soft bones in childhood.

A STORY OF GEROME.

The Master Painter, the New Student and a Practical Joke.

A number of years ago a poverty stricken painter, since famous and prosperous, went to Paris from a country village in Normandy. He studied at the Ecole des Beaux Arts. The new student's first day chance to be "criticized day" and the older students, finding themselves cheated out of their customary boisterous banter by this circumstance, resolved to have fun in an indirect fashion.

He was a good boy, but he was not popular and impressed upon him in the most friendly and confidential way imaginable that he was under the obligation of giving a tip to the professor when he criticized his work. Incredulous at first, he was soon led to believe that he would be hit with a stick if he did not give a tip. He did not give a tip, however, and the students were given to watching my house for signs of my leaving, and it was a long time before they found that a candle could go out without human agency."

A Painter's Raze.

A painter, writing in the Country Gentleman, says: "I was in the Yorkshires' coat of arms as a boy. The Yorkshires' coat of arms was given to me many years ago by a Yorkshiresman. It runs thus: A fess, a fay, a magpie and a fitch of bacca—a fay, because he will hit his best friend; a fay, because he will drink his best friend dry; a fay, because he will chatter with anybody; a fitch of bacca, because he is no good until he is hung."—London Spectator.

What does this mean? You'll do well to come to see me some fine morning and straighten this thing out."

The bewildered pupil interpreted the admonition literally and presented himself at Gerome's private studio two days later. He was received by the master's father, led him on to confess his delusion and to unb burden him of his hopes and fears, gave him good conseil and restored to him his half franc piece in the form of a twenty franc gold piece.

S. W. Bassett, of Union Star, left Sunday for the St. Louis fair.

CONDENSED STOR-

IES OF THE DAY.

A Georgia statesman says that which was in the shop of an optician in Atlanta he once heard an amusing conversation between the proprietor of the establishment and an aged darkey, who was just leaving the place with a pair of new spectacles.

As the old chap cleared the door his eye lighted upon a most extraordinary looking instrument conspicuously placed upon a counter. The venerable negro panted for several moments to gaze in open mouthed wonder at this thing, the like of which he had never seen before. After a long struggle with his curiosity he was vanquished. Turning to the optician he said:

"What is it, boss?"

"That is an ophthalmometer," replied the optician, in his gravest manner.

"Sho!" muttered the old man to himself as he backed out of the door, his eyes still fastened upon the curious looking thing on the counter "Sho, dat's what I was afraid it was—Yourn's Companion."

The stoical bravery of Russian soldiers is well illustrated by the story of a captain who was unsuccessfully shelling a battering at the siege of Varsavie. Field Marshal Paskhilevitch galloped up to the captain and sternly asked why his friend did not have some effect. The captain replied that the shells did not ignite. The marshal scoffed that theory and threatened to degrade the officer. The captain picked up one of the shells, ignited the fuse, and, holding it in the palm of his hand, said to the marshal: "See for yourself, sir." The marshal, holding his arms across his breast, stood looking at the smoking shell. It was a solemn moment. Both men stood motionless, awaiting the result. Finally the fuse burned out and the captain threw the shell to the ground. "It's true," retorted the marshal, turning away to consider other measures, to silence the enemy's fire. In the evening, instead of punishment, the captain received the cross of the Order of St. Vladimir.

Same Old Circus.

The three elephants in Gentry Brothers' parade this morning looked like three mud holes that had dried up. How hard a circus band plays! The trombone player in the parade this morning nearly worked himself to death. The real humor is a monkey. We never look at a monkey without smiling. However, he always looks funny.

In every circus band you find one player who insists on nailing music, although he has played the same piece a thousand times, and knows it. Usually he is a player who can't read music: a player secured in a country town. During the parade today a Farmer had his team of two young mules tied to a pole, and sat in the wagon holding the lines. When the elephants came along four other men were necessary to keep the mules from running away. Every man who drives a wagon in a circus parade looks cross; he seems to be protecting silently the cause he doesn't get more wages. The dirtiest faced young man we ever saw

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 13.—Carrie Nance appeared here yesterday afternoon in her old role of saloon singer. At one place she was forced to dance a jig because of shots fired at her feet. She was thrown out of another place, and roundly handled "full around," but persisted in her work.

BEADY FOR BURS.

For a dry burn, caron oil. Shake the bottle, saturate a soft cloth with the mixture and lay over the burn. My best paying property is leased to a man who is always two or three months behind in his rent. Of course I lose the interest on my money for that time, but that is all. In the three years I have been interested in this I have not had the nerve to ask me even to paper a room for him. I haven't done it, either. In one instance I had some plumbing done at his own expense when he should have charged it me. I am constantly afraid that I will get prosperous some day and want to pay me on time. Just as sure as he does I will have to spend several hundred dollars on the house."—New York Tribune.

MOON PHASE.

The phases of the moon may be explained by the fact that the moon is an opaque body which is only partially illuminated by the sun.

When the moon is seen only when the sky is sufficiently dark to present a complete outline of the disk. This illumination is due to the light which comes first from the sun, is reflected to the earth and back to the moon and thence to the earth. What we really see is the earth light shining on the moon.

KEEPING IN TOUCH WITH ONESELF.

It's good to have money and the things that go with it, but it's good, too, to check up once in awhile and make sure you haven't lost the things that money won't buy. When a fellow's got what he set out for in this world he should go off into the woods for a few weeks now and then to make sure he's still a man and not a plug hat and a frock coat and a wad of bills.—Saturday Evening Post.

WHICH?

A very loquacious lady asked a friend what position he would give her were she a man.

"I'd make you superintendent of a deaf and dumb asylum," was his reply.

"Why?"

"Because either the inmates would learn to talk or you to keep silent!"—New York Times.

Court Of Appeals Affirms Decision in Case Montgomery Against Weed Chief.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 13.—In affirming a judgment of the Hardin Circuit Court in the contested case of James Montgomery against Weed Chief, involving the office of Circuit Judge of the Ninth Judicial District, the Court of Appeals to-day held that Sections 1561 and 1564 of the Kentucky Statutes clearly recognize that the governing committee of a political party has the authority to pre-serve conditions to be complied with by candidates desiring to be voted for in a primary election of the party, the payment of expenses as entrance fee to secure place on the ballot. It also ruled that the members of the committee must be present at the meeting calling a primary or convention, but the proxy of one or four members of a committee would not invalidate the action taken, and that while the committee required to be sworn before acting, the failure to do so would not invalidate a primary election shown to have been fairly held.

The action grew out of the holding of a primary election in the counties of the Ninth Judicial District on September 20, 1902, to select the Democratic nominees for Circuit Judge, T. B. McBeath and the appellant, James Montgomery. The two first named and the respondent, as well as the party committee of the district, and angelant, failing to pay, did not get his name on the ballot. Chief was nominated, elected and inducted into office and the appellant sued to recover it on the ground that the nomination of Chief was illegal and void. The case was before a special judge and the petition of Montgomery dismissed. This is upheld.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out all the impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fall to do their work.

Fatigue, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or death. It makes one feel as though they had heart trouble. The heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be thought that only urinary trouble could be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are, you can make no mistake by first destroying your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Klim's Swamp Root is great kidney remedy is soon known. It is one of the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar cases.

ASYLUM INDICTMENTS.

Supt. Milton Board, of Hardinsburg, And Commissioners up For Malfeasance in Office.

BOARD INDICTMENT IS DISMISSED.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 13.—On motion of the commonwealth's attorney the indictments against Superintendent Board and Commissioners Bush and Smith of the Western Kentucky asylum for the insane, in connection with the presentation of two heifers to State Senator Richardson for aiding in getting a $75,000 appropriation for the institution were dismissed this afternoon. The other cases will be prosecuted. The asylum records showed that Dr. Bush and Dr. Smith presented the heifers to the senator when the gift was authorized and accounted to the states that the superintendent has no authority in the disposition of asylum property. The indicted commissioners claim that the cows were given the senator after the adjournment of the legislature and present no bearing on their action in supporting the measure.

Publishes Card.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 13.—A special to the Courier-Journal from Hopkinsville says: "Dr. Bush published a formal card today, in which he makes public the charges against Dr. Lackey. He avows him of constant disregard of asylum rules, neglect of official duty, untruthfulness and self-confession of grafting. It is believed that Dr. Stephens, former first assistant to Dr. Lackey, will succor to his position. The official minutes of the meeting of the board of directors show that the cows were given to Gus Richardson and they also show that the board also agreed to pay the expenses on them. He accepted two of the older cows, but the two younger ones were killed on the train. Dr. Board declares that the cows and heifers were presented to Richardson as the bouquet was presented to the legislature after the act making the appropriation was passed and not before for the purpose of influencing his conduct.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 13.—The grand jury this afternoon returned indictments against Supt. Milton Board, and nearly all of the Commissioners and board officials at the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, for malfeasance in office. The bills were secured by the efforts of Dr. Walter A. Lackey, former first assistant physician, who resigned his position last week, after the superintendent and Board of Commissioners had filed charges against him with the Governor and requested his removal.

Dr. Lackey is himself indicted for assault and battery. Dr. Lackey moved to the Governor on last Saturday containing charges against Supt. Board and a number of the commissioners. He charged the head of the institution with padding requisitions and drawing pay for patients who were paroled, and in one instance of keeping the name of a dead patient on the lists for several months. He accused commissioners and officers of the board of selling supplies to or having contracts with the institution, in violation of the statutes.

Before The Grand Jury.

ARREST IT—$500 REWARD.

Dr. Lackey then carried the matter before the grand jury, and, after an investigation, in which numerous witnesses were examined, including Supt. Board and commissioners, the indictments were found. The superintendent and all of the commissioners, except W. T. Tandy, who was not a member of the board, are indicted for giving two heifers to Senator Gus W. Richardson, of Meade county. Senator Richardson was a member of the joint legislative committee which recommended the $75,000 appropriation for building the new wings at the asylum. The other indictments were as follows:

Commissioner C. H. Bush, for accepting a fee in defending the suit of G. W. Williamson, administrator, against the asylum.

Commissioner John B. Chilton, for holding a position as farm superintendent on salary.

Commissioner M. W. Johnson, for sending beef cattle.

Commissioner F. M. Quarles, for selling hay, straw, etc.

Treasurer L. H. Davis, for putting in stone foundations of two wings from which he derives profit.

Secretary J. C. Buckner, for furnishing coal under contract.

Walter A. Lackey, for committing assault and battery on the person of Spegal Bonland, a lunatic, and patient at the institution while said Lackey was acting as superintendent of the asylum.

Ball was fixed in each case at $500 except Dr. Lackey's, which is $100.

Sup't Board Talks.

Superintendent Board states that the board, with his approval, did give the cows to Senator Richardson as testimony of its appreciation of his good services in connection with the asylum appropriation, for which he labored zealously. According to the statement of the Superintendent to the Courier-Journal representative, he filed with the Governor after the filing of the petition by himself and the commissioners requesting Dr. Lackey's removal, separate charges, accusing the first assistant of incompetency, neglect of duty, absenting himself from the asylum, mischievous grafting, cruelty and misrepresentation. The charge of the board, the Superintendent says, were that Dr. Lackey was a disturbing element and that he was negligent and cruel to his patients.

Dr. Lackey and his family have removed from the asylum to Peurbrook. Dr. Lackey claims he was badly treated by Superintendent Board and the commissioners, and denies their charges against him.

Judge Bush, one of the commissioners indicted, says the custom has always obtained at the institution of attorneys on the board being employed in legal business, and denies that his acceptance of a fee was ground for indictment. He says he was paid for his services in the Williamson case a $25,000 damage suit, which he the asylum won. Judge Bush says he was not present at the board meeting which is said to have authorized the present to Senator Richardson.

Hines Has The Papers.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 13.—Soon after Dr. Walter Lackey sent in his resignation to Gov. Beckham as first assistant physician at the Western Asylum for the Insane, which was requested of him, he sent a letter filing charges against the Board of Officials of the institution, which was received by the Governor last Monday. Gov. Beckham at once turned the papers over to State Inspector Hines.

Says It's Spite Work.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 13.—Lincoln E. Davis, treasurer of the Hopkinsville Asylum board, who is among those indicted at Hopkinsville yesterday, is in the city a member of the Knights of Pythias, committee that is inspecting sites for the K. of P. Widows' and Orphans' Home. He said to day that the indictment was the result of spite work and malice on the part of a physician removed for cruelty. He said he did take the contract for the stone work but that stone masonry is his business and has been for years and that he was the lowest bidder and has no fear of results.
